

Final Call for Papers – Body Sensor Networks 2009 – Berkeley, USA

Sixth International Workshop - June 3rd-5th 2009

<http://www.bsn2009.org>

Paper registration deadline:	30 Jan 2009
Paper submission deadline:	8 Feb (23:59 PST)
Notification of acceptance:	20 Feb 2009
Final version due:	10 Mar 2009
Conference:	3-5 June 2009

Conference registration is now open

Papers should be between 4 and 6 pages.

General Chairs:

Prof Paul K. Wright, UC Berkeley

Prof Eric M. Yeatman, Imperial College London

BSN 2009 is the sixth workshop following the successful BSN workshops held at Imperial College in London (2004, 2005), MIT in Boston (2006), RWTH Aachen University (2007), and Chinese University in Hong Kong (2008).

BSN 2009 is hosted by the University of California Centre for Information Technology Research in the Interests of Society (CITRIS) and by the Centre for Pervasive Sensing at Imperial College London.

Body sensor networks (BSN) technology has gained tremendous international interest in recent years from researchers both in academia and industry. With the development of innovative wearable/wireless/implantable biosensors, the applications for BSNs extend from in-vivo monitoring and intervention to everyday healthcare, as well as fitness, sport and security. This workshop will address the fast-growing BSN research field, and offers participants a unique forum to discuss the key issues and innovative solutions in current BSN research. The conference will feature a number of invited lectures by leading academic researchers and industrial experts and include a showcase and demonstration of healthcare and other technologies.

Areas of interest include:

- Networking, security and wireless communications
- Smart fabrics and wearables
- Lower power electronics, power sources and energy harvesting
- BSN architecture and platforms
- Medical applications
- Sport and leisure applications
- Sensor technology and biocompatibility
- Home monitoring and assisted living applications

Registration Fees

	Up to March 1, 2009	After March 1, 2009
Regular Attendee	$395	$495
Student	$150	$200

- Registration fee includes welcome reception (June 3), conference dinner (June 4), lunches on June 4 and 5, and proceedings in both hardcopy and CD form (only CD for student rate).
- Students must provide a letter confirming status from an academic advisor

Paper Submission and Proceedings

All submissions should be from 4 to 6 pages, in double column format, following the IEEE Computer Society style. Details and templates are available at:

The proceedings will be published by the IEEE Computer Society

Technical Program Committee

- Prof. Daniel Berckmans - K.U. Leuven, Belgium
- Dr. Dinesh Bhatia - University of Texas at Dallas, USA
- Prof. Gert Cauwenberghs - UC San Diego, USA
- Prof. Dermot Diamond - Dublin City University, Ireland
- Dr. Scott Drawer - UK Sport, UK
- Dr. Leonard Fass - GE Healthcare
- Dr. Sandeep Gupta - Arizona State University, USA
- Prof. Yang Hao - Queen Mary University of London, UK
- Dr. Emil Jovanov - Univeristy of Alabama in Huntsville, USA
- Dr. Ilkka Korhonen - VTT, Finland
- Dr. Thomas Lindh - KTH, Sweden
- Dr. Keck Voo Ling - Nanyang Technological University, Singapore
- Dr. Torsten Linz - Fraunhofer IZM, Germany
- Prof. Paul Lukowicz - Universität Passau, Germany
- Dr. Rahul Sarpeshkar - MIT, USA
- Dr. Alireza Seyedi - University of Rochester, USA
- Prof. Morris Sloman - Imperial College London, UK
- Dr. Lei Wang - Chinese Academy of Sciences, China
- Dr. Andy West - University of Loughborough, UK
- Dr. Joerg Habetha - Philips Research, Germany
- Prof. Bill Kaiser - UCLA, USA
